Raymond Giudice, PC Atlanta's Premier Trial Lawyers

Is there a difference between a "lawyer" and a "trial lawyer?" You bet.

A "lawyer" attempts to avoid jury trials—settling for a quick criminal plea deal, or taking the first monetary settlement offered in a personal injury or civil case.

A "trial lawyer" prepares every case as if it will go to trial. This commitment to provide aggressive client representation permits trial lawyers to negotiate from a position of strength.

Ray and his team of trial lawyers and talented staff approach each case with one goal in mind—obtaining justice for every client. That means handling all aspects of a case up to, and including, a jury trial.

The "trial lawyers" at Raymond Giudice, PC are well-known and well-respected in the Atlanta legal community. We have the well-earned reputation of not backing down when it comes to protecting our clients' rights.

Ray has over 29 years of experience managing a criminal defense and personal injury trial practice. He and his associate attorneys have clocked thousands of hours of experience in the courtroom. Today, the firm is one of Atlanta's premier trial attorney groups.

If you need legal representation, call a "trial lawyer" – Raymond Giudice, PC Trial Lawyers.
